"By Government Test, Our Climate is Best."
Slogan Adopted by Redwood City Realty Board

VOLUME LXV., NUMBER 2. REDWOOD CITY, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1925. ESTABLISHED 1859

ALAMEDA DE LAS PULGAS REPORT

That all property owners along the Alameda de las Pulgas whose property serves to separate the present existing sections of that road were willing to donate a right of way through their land, was the report of a committee appointed by the board of supervisors to investigate the possibility of conecting the links of the roadway into a continuous highway.

The report was made before the board of supervisors at their regular meeting last Monday by H. C. Tuchsen, local realtor, who was appointed chairman of the committee, and who has been one of the most active in his efforts to have this road improved.

At present the Alameda de las Pulgas consists of a number of sections in various states of repair and separated by short distances of private land. If these sections are connected it will form a highway from the San Mateo Crystal Springs road to Mayfield, and will be an important adjunct to the present highway system of the county. This can be accomplished with very slight cost to the county, according to the report of the committe, as all of the necessary rights of way will be donated. When completed this road will serve to open up many fine residence tracts, at present shut off from the highway by the bad conditions of the roads.

The board considered the report of this committee and passed a resolution appointing Robert Klassen to make the surveys necessary to the preliminary work of continuing the road.

Supervisor Hickey stated that he considered that if the road were made continuous in this part of the county from San Mateo south, that it could at little expense be continued north and thus form a parallel highway. This could be done on roadways that already exist for most of the way

WOODSIDE

Samuel Wescott answered the last call on Tuesday afternoon. He had been ill for some time and his death was not unexpected. He was born in Nova Scotia seventy-one years ago and had been a resident of Woodside for fifteen years. Funeral services were held at Redwood City Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Westcott will reside for a time at least with friends in San Francisco.

Mrs. Frank Agnew and young son of San Francisco have been guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Audiffred.

Miss Phyllis Kroeck of Redwood City will live here with her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Ross, Jr., during the absence of her mother in Europe.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Allen are spending the week end at the Jackling place.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Norton and daughter Edith expect to return to San Francisco about the 20th of the month.

Special Easter services will be held at the Woodside church on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. The program will be in charge of the members of the Sunday school. All are invited to attend.

I have an idea that the finely attuned ears of our bird friends are able to pick up the musical vibrations sent out by the radio, broadcasting stations and that the birds are stimulated to competitive effort thereby. Certainly the bird chorus has been performing at its best this spring. If we only knew where to address the plaudit-grams.

Mortimer Fleishacker and family have postponed their arrival here until the twentieth of the month. They had been expected on the first.

The road crew of this district have taken advantage of the generous soaking afforded by the last rain to do some much needed grading of our dirt roads. For the greater riding comfort resulting from their labor, they will receive the blessings of the community.

San Bruno Killers Escape Prison

The shooting affair in San Bruno which resulted in the death of Chief of Police MeeHan of that city on the night of September 18, 1923, was again revived in the public mind this week by the escape from San Quentin penitentiary of Joseph Tanco and Floyd Hall, convicted murderers of the officer.

The escape was made by the two men on Tuesday night by means of a piece of rope which they had stolen from the jute mill of the prison. With this they managed to scale the 25-foot wall of the prison within a few feet of a guard tower, it is said, after having escaped from their cell by picking the lock. Two guards on duty at the point where the men escaped were discharged this week for non-attendance of duty.

The men after conviction in the court here, and while being taken to prison by Sheriff McGovern and Deputy Meeks made a desperate attempt to escape from the car and were only restrained by the quick action of the officers. The pair are characterized as the worst criminals ever held in the local jail.

TRUSTEES LET CONTRACT FOR ROOSEVELT AVE WORK

The long debate concerning the paving of Roosevelt avenue came to an end last Monday night when the board of trustees of Redwood City opened bids for the paving of that street. This matter has been under consideration for several months and was the cause of a long dispute between the proponents of two types of pavements—vis. the asphaltic and the oil bound macadem. The latter type seemed to have gained the victory and that type of paving was ordered.

Bids were received Monday night from four concerns as follows: W. W. Thompson, $26,141.33; C. J. Lindgren, $27,662.07; A. J. Grier, $29,696.50; and Western Pavement Co. $32,108.06. The bid of W. W. Thompson was accepted.

WORK STARTED THIS WEEK ON NEW METHODIST CHURCH BUILDING

First Church to be Built on West Side Of Town Begun This Week; Old Church Built in 1874

Marking the culmination of a campaign extending over several years for the purpose of raising sufficient money to erect a new church building here a permit was secured this week for work. Actual building operations on the church began this week.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING OF NEW STRUCTURE NOW BEING ERECTED ON BROADWAY AND BREWSTER STREETS.

The new building will be situated on the property purchased for that purpose on the corner of Broadway and Brewster street several years ago. The building will be finished in the mission type of architecture with the entrance toward the intersection of the two streets.

The present building of the church

BUILDING OCCUPIED BY METHODIST CHURCH SINCE 1874

was erected in 1874 and with very few alterations has, served the needs of the congregation since that time. The growth of the western section of the town, however, has made the need of a church on the west side of the highway felt and it was for this reason that the members of the congregation have had the present change in mind for several years.

The final success of the plans for building the new church belongs in a great measure to Rev. Harry Owen who since his appointment here less than two years ago has worked tirelessly on the proposition, and is still sparing no efforts to accomplish his aim.

Dr. Owen has had great experience in building chrches nearly all over the world. His last effort was the raising of $150,00 to erect Union churches across the Panama Canal zone. He built at Cristobal a church for all denominations which cost $76,000 and he raised $40,000 in Balboa at the Pacific end of the zone. All the great boards in New York stood behind him in moral support.

He is now supposed to be resting in Redwood City after his many huge efforts for God and humanity, but seeing the need of the Methodist church he has set to work at the request of Dr. G. A. White, the district superintendent, and Bishop Leonard, to raise the money for this enterprise.

When completed the church will have cost about $25,000 and will be one of the most artistic buildings in the Highlands. New ideas in auditorium construction are being employed in every detail and will be given careful consideration of the builders, in order that it may be a perfectly acoustic building.

"The Woman Spy" will be the dramatic event of the season in Redwood City. That is the opinion of every member of the Kiwanis Club, and it is the goal towards which every member of the club is working. "The Woman Spy" is the play which will be staged by the local club on April 17 th the High School auditorium, and for which rehearsals are now in progress.

The play will be a burlesque of a melodramtic type; very mellow and very dramatic, according to its directors, who claim for it more ludicrous situations than any other production ever offered to the theatre fans of Redwood City. All parts, both male and female are being taken by the members of the club and are being directed by Otis M. Carrington and B. E. Myers.

Tickets are now on sale for the play and can be secured from any member of the club. There are plenty of good seats left now, but it is the expectation of the club to leave no vacant seats in the house by the time of the production, so early purchases of tickets are being urged.

One of the objectives of the Kiwanis Club is to help the underprivileged child and for this purpose the charity box is opened frequently. To provide funds for all of such activities, the club is giving its theatrical production, "The Woman Spy." The proceeds from this play are to be devoted exclusively to helping the unfortunate, both kiddies and others who are in dire need. Let every one help by buying tickets and aiding to fill the high school auditorium on the night of the performance.

Horticultural Commissioner's Report

The most important spraying operations for the control of the codlin moth or worm in apples and pears. Most varieties will have dropped their petals before the middle of the month and be in the ideal state for the first spraying. While this is the most important, it must be remembered that to successfully control at intervals of about three weeks in order that the growing fruit may be kept covered with the poison. For late apples it will be advisable to apply a fourth spray the latter part of July.

Zinc arsenite or acid arsenate of lead should be used for effectual control at the rate of one and one half pounds to fifty gallons of water. Basic arsenate of lead may be used but at a little greater strength. Zinc arsenite is the most poisonous of the three and has the advantage of controlling the tussock moth (horned caterpillar) but is unsafe to use with bordeaux mixture, which may be used with the other two preparations, if it is desired to control scab on either apples or pears. Black leaf "forty," (nicotine sulphate), may be used with all or with the bordeaux to destroy aphids, if present. Soaps or soap oil emulsions should not be used with either zinc arsenite or acid arsenate of lead as such combinations are very apt to burn the foliage.

For the control of sow bugs, wood lice, or pill bugs, as they are variously called, I have found nothing more successful than the mixture of one part Paris Green to twenty-five parts dry bran previously recommended. We are experimenting, however, with a new preparation which it is hoped will prove more satisfactory.

Inspections of 720 shipments of 124,498 plants from within and 15 shipments of 13,091 plants from without the state have been made during the month, a total of 871 shipments of 137,598 plants. But 83,791 strawberry plants were received, which is the least for the month of March of which I have record. Unless large shipments of this berry are received during April, the acreage devoted to the growing of it in this county will show a decresse as so far not as much has been planted as has been abandoned during the season for non-productiveness.

Respectfully submitted,
A. W. TATE, JR.,
Horticultural Commissioner, San Mateo County.

A GOOD SIGN

It is a good sign which tells the stranger the name of a street, and such signs have long been conspicuous by their absence around the street corners of Redwood City. But things have changed and the stranger who dropped into the Gazette office to ask where Broadway is, will be no more. For under the able direction of Superintendent of Streets Dimmitt, good looking readable signs have been installed on all the main corners of Redwood City's streets. The signs are a big asset to the town and are signs of improvement as well as signs of streets.

SCHOOLS TO STOP WAR

SCHOOLS to stop war? That's a new idea. But it is one that Owen D. Young, member of the committee of experts which formulated the Dawes Plan and saw it through to a successful conclusion, thinks practicable. Not only practicable but necesasry.

Mr. Young and his colleagues are now seeking $1,000,000 for the purpose of establishing the Walter Hines Page School of International Relations. This school Mr. Young believes will result in increased understanding between nations and better relations throughout the world. True, this is only an experiment and costs one million dollars. But a battleship costs thirty times that amount and in a few years is used as a target for aerial bombs and sunk. Then another thirty million dollars is nedded.

In speaking on this topic Mr. Young stated:

"We desire to outlaw war. Not so long ago we desired to outlaw the yellow fever. We desired to outlaw typhoid. We desired to outlaw diphtheria. We desired to shake off the enervating shackles of the hookworm. The plague and yellow fever, typhoid and diphtheria, the hookworm and malaria are outlawed in the world today. You all know the dramatic story. The patient research worker in his laboratory, seeking facts, building theories and testing them by experiments, showing not only devotion to his work, but frequently a self-sacrifice which led to his death, came through victor. The practicing physicians, who are the administrators of medicine, adopted the fruits of that research, and today these diseases for the most part exist no more. Science blazed the way for the administrator to follow.

"So with war. It is not enough to have Government departments of administration. It is not enough to have an industry of foreign relations. We must supply a science, a systematic body of things known, if we desire to make our aspiration for peace effective. Our curse is ignorance Facts are our scarcest raw material. This is shown by the economy with which we use them.

"A great body of information must be created and mobilized in some single place about all the other questions which affect international problems. The men who do this research work will become experts in international problems. Some of them will continue their service in pure research as a life career. Others will be teachers of the science. Others will be drafted into the Government service. The Page School will therefore, achieve three things. First, it will develop a science of international relations. Second, it will ascertain the facts, so far as they can be found, on any particular problem, and third, it will produce a continually growing body of men trained in that science and available for service in the fields of education, government and business. Our contacts with the world at every point should show more conductivity and less useless sparking."

SIGNS

I AM one of the fellows that believe in signs. That doesn't mean that I am superstitious; still I don't like to walk under a ladder; I wouldn't for the world count the machines at a funeral; I like to wish on the new moon when I see it over my right shoulder. So I believe in signs.

I have my share of signs up in the office too. Sometimes I live up to them. More often I don't, but sometimes they help me and stimulate me just a bit. We caught the following verse in an exchange the other day. We thought perhaps you might like it

"You may bring to your office and put in a frame
A sign as fine as its paint,
But if you're not straight when you're playing the game,
That sign won't make you a saint.

You can stick up the placards all over the hall,
But here is the word I announce:
It isn't the sign that hangs on the wall
But the sign you live that counts.

If the sign says 'SMILE' and you carry a frown;
'DO IT NOW' and you linger and wait;
If the sign says, 'HELP,' and you trample men down;

If the sign says 'LOVE' and you hate
You won't get away with the signs you stall.
For 'TRUTH' will come forth with a bounce;
It isn't the sign that you hang on the wall,

BORZAGE DIRECTS NORMA TALMADGE IN NEW PLAY

Veteran Film Maker Brings "The Lady," Stage Hit, to Screen

Frank Borzage directed Norma Talmadge in "The Lady," her latest First National photoplay.

Borzage recently directed Norma in "Secrets," one of the greatest screen successes of her career, as well as "Humoresque."

"The Lady" had a long run on New York and London stages. The stage play was written by Martin Brown. Norma plays the role of Polly Roll, a part taken by Mary Nash in the stage version. The picture is a First National attraction, produced by Joseph M. Schenck. It was adapted to the screen by Frances Marion.

The supporting cast includes Wallace MacDonald, Norma's leading man; Alf Goulding, Brandon Hurst, Emily Fitzroy, George Hackathorne, Walter Long, Marc MacDermott, Doris Lloyd, John Fox, Jr., Paulette Duval, Edwin Hubbell, Loro Bara, John Herdman, Margaret Seddon, Miles McCarthay and Charles O'Malley.

"The Lady" will be shown at the Sequoia Theatre on Broadway, next Monday and Tuesday, April 13 and 14.

THREE WOMEN

Another Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen is about to be presented to the public at Sequoia Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, April 15 and 16. With memories of "The Marriage Circle" still lingering theatre-goers will look forward to seeing a production equal in merit. They will not be disappointed. First of all, Ernst Lubitsch is the director, and his successful productions are still fresh in our minds. Secondly, the Warner Bros. have chosen a cast which will do justice to this Classic of the Screen.

Marie Prevost, May McAvoy and Pauline Frederick share the stellar honors, while the rest of the cast includes Lew Cody, Mary Carr, Pierre Gendron and Willard Louis.

"Three Women" deals with the love affairs of three women for one man. At first he is in love with a middleaged widow, Mrs. Wilton, or rather with her money; then he becomes infatuated with her daughter, whom he marries. Still not content, he has an affair with another, to the chagrin of his wife and her mother. Mrs. Wilton, in a fury, comes to demand her daughter's release but Lamont merely laughs at her and hints at her still being in love with him. Then comes the tragedy when Lamont is killed by his mother-in-law and former sweetheart. Days of suspense follow for the mother and daughter before the trial, but the picture comes to a happy conclusion when a verdict of "not guilty" is brought in by the jury and the girl gives her love to a former sweetheart.

F. Thomas Process

Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500.00 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.

With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.

Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes a little ice saves a lot of food!

From the standpoint of economy alone, you'll find it pays to take ice regularly throughout the Spring months. Outside of the cold, even temperature of a refrigerator, perishable foods will grow stale, and some will spoil. And a little waste now and then will mean quite a total on the monthly food bills. Aside from this, ice has a tremendous health value in keeping your foods pure and wholesome. Just ask your doctor!

LEGISLATIVE LETTER
By C. W. TURNER

Sacramento.—In vetoing the bill for the increase of the salary of a probation officer in one county, Governor Richardson remarked that salaries of county officials were not matters that properly belong before the legislature and should be settled by the counties, since the county authorities and public know far better than members of the legislature what local needs are; many of the members hardly knowing where the county in question was situated, and nothing of its local conditions. This opinion has caused much favorable comment among the members of the legislature, and were it not so late, no doubt a constitutional amendment, giving to the counties exclusive jurisdiction in these matters would be introduced, and unquestionably submitted to the people.

The oil question has taken the center of the stage and is now in the full glare of the spotlight. The activities of the anti-tax lobby, representing the various oil interests of the state at the capitol, have led the friends of increased gasoline tax, which the lobby is opposing, to counter with a proposed constitutional amendment which would declare petroleum and all its by-products public utilities, and as such, subject to the orders and direction of the railway commission.

If such an amendment were submitted to the people and carried, the oil companies would be in the same position as the railroads and motor stage lines and could not increase the prices of their products except after having asked and obtained permission from the railway commission on a showing that the increase was justified.

It is easy to see what such a control of their business would mean to the companies and naturally they are as actively opposing the amendment, as they have hitherto been busy trying to defeat the tax.

What makes the position of the oil companies all the more perilous from their standpoint is the fact that the existing provisions of the state constitution, as is claimed by some of the best attorneys in the state, allow the legislature to declare the oil business or any other business a public utility whenever it chooses; and the legislature may decide to pass an act making the declaration, though whether the governor would sign it is considered doubtful.

By a vote of one more than the constitutional majority, the assembly defeated the bill of Assemblywoman Miller of Pasadena, which would have put into effect in this state what is known as "the Geary system," under which children are excused from the public schools for so many hours a week for the purpose of attending religious instruction in their various denominational churches.

The argument in opposition was that the plan was but the entering wedge to religious instruction in the public schools.

Managers of moving picture houses all over the state will be interested in the fate of Assembly Bill 790 which would forbid them selling tickets in excess of the seating capacity of their houses.

Bakers must be careful how they sift flour in future. If it is white, fine flour, they must use a number sixteen mesh screen, but if it be graham or some coarse flour, then a number eight screen must be used.

The custom of leasing state land to private gun clubs or individuals for hunting purposes, excluding the public from hunting thereon is to be stopped by a bill that has already passed one house and will no doubt pass the other. It will stop a practice said to be common in the two great interior valleys of the state.

The budget as finally passed and sent to the governor, carries a total of $159,000,000 which is an increase of $28,757,000 over its original figure, due to increases for the state highway commission.

The governor has signed a bill creating a department of public welfare which is to consist of a board of six members appointed for a term of six years, who receive no salaries, but will supercede the state board of corrections and charities with all the powers the latter possessed.

Gifts to the University of California running into many thousands of dollars were announced by President Campbell at the Charter day exercises in Berkeley. Mr. Campbell said work had been started on the new Hearst hall to replace the old wooden building of the same name, to be erected at a cost of $1,000,000 in memory of Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, for many years a regent. This will be the sixteenth new building along modern architectural lines.

Fifty-seven years ago the University of California occupied four blocks of land in the heart of what is now the business district of Oakland and had thirty-five students and a faculty of ten men. On the last Charter day the figures showed that 1,500 persons are connected with the faculty and that more than 30,000 students are receiving instruction in some branch of university work.

SAVANT EXPOSES NATURE; GERMS MORE DANGEROUS THAN CYCLONES

According to our nursery books, Mother Nature is a kind, indulgent old lady, working incessantly for the good of her children. Now comes the news from the laboratory of science, that she has for these many years been enjoying a false, though flattering reputation. In his book, "Man, an Adaptive Mechanism," Dr. George W. Grile, F. A. C. S. points out that Nature destroys just as rapidly as she creates; and that the whole history of a man is a relentless struggles against her destructive forces.

Occassionally, we see and read about the manifestations of these forces—tornados, floods, earthquakes taking a tremendous toll in lives and property. But continuous, day in and day out destruction does not get into the newspapers. It lacks the theatrical qualtities of a cyclone; but it is every bit dangerous. It is the action of invisible bacteria.

The disease germ is not attended by any pretentious display. It works silently, invisibly, contaminating a dish of food left in a window cooler, breeding in a bottle of milk which has not been kept below the temperature of 50 degrees, leaving a myriad of ills in its wake. This is the great destructive force of Nature which man must guard against.

One way of doing this is to keep all perishable foodstuffs away from the germ-laden dust particles of the air. The best way to keep them in a well-iced refrigerator, below a temperature of 50 degrees, where germ life cannot exist. Health authorities agree that the refrigerator is the finest form of health insurance a family can have.

LIGHT PROBLEMS OF COAST HEARD BY SUPERVISORS

The application of the Great Western Power and Light Company for a new fifty-year franchise was the subject of considerable discussion before the board of supervisors of this county at their regular meeting last Monday. The new franchise asked for by the company, it was explained, is to enable them to move their power lines farther back from the ocean, which it is said, interferes with the dependable distribution of power to the towns of the coastside.

The company was represented by Attorney C. E. Hall, who presented the petition. When an objection was raised by Supervisor Hickey to the inclusion of certain territoy on the east side of the mountains in the petition, which calls for a franchise in the following school districts: South San Francisco, Visitacion, San Bruno, Hillsborough, San Mateo, Ferris and Laguna as well as the coastside district, Hall explained that this was to avoid making a description of each road and highway to be used. District Attorney Swart stated that this was not really objectionable as the Great Western Company could not serve territory already served by any other company without firs; getting permission from the railroad commission.

Stating that the light situation on the coastside was much in need of improvement, Supervisor Thompson made a motion that the franchise be granted, but upon further discussion, when it was stated by other supervisors that they thought that the district to be served should be more specifically described in the petition, Thompson withdrew his montion and the matter was laid over for further consideration.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

Incorporation of the Ravenswood-North Palo Alto-East Palo Alto territory was advocated at a meeting of the Ravenswood Chamber of Commerce Monday night as a defense against piece-meal annexation of the section to other communities or involuntary inclusion in the San Francisco-San Mateo merger should that plan go through. These points were brought out in general discussion which followed a talk by James T. O'Keefe of Menlo Park, who talked on the legal steps to be taken in incorporation and advised the step as a means of securing local control.

Plans are being made by Menlo Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, for a card party to be given Tuesday, April 14, to raise funds for the float to be entered in the diamond jubilee celebration at San Francisco. The Native Sons are also arranging a benefit affair, to take the form of a dance for April 18.

Senator Samuel M. Shortridge will arrive home from Washington on Monday after a strenuous session at the capital. His strong support of the administration in putting over its policies has won him the admiration of every republican in California. Easterners look upon Shortridge as one of the big men of the senate. His eloquent speech on behalf of Warren for confirmation as attorney general was a master piece and was the equal, if not superior to that of Senator Borah.

James L. Flood is alarmingly sick at his home in San Francisco. His many friends here hope his recovery will be speedy. Flood has endeared himself to the people of Menlo Park, where he has spent the greater portion of his life.

J. J. Doyle is erecting a neat bungalow on his property in the Barney tract. It will be for sale when completed. Doyle plans to build more houses in this locality that will be sold for a small profit.

A record vote was cast at the fire commissioner election last Monday. Nearly all the voters of the district came to the polls. Eight hundred and one votes were polled. Of this number Clarence R. Walter received 715 and his opponent, J. P. Kneifing 175. Walter during the campaign proved his ability as a politician and vote getter. For over nine years he has served the district faithfully and well and the flattering vote he received proved that his services were appreciated.

Eight new houses are being erected on Santa Cruz avenue and a dozen more are contemplated. There is a big demand for cottages here. Many eastern people are seeking them.

Special services will be held in all the local churches tomorrow. In the Church of the Nativity masses will b ecelebrated at 8 o'clock and 10:30.

Menlo Park never looked so beautiful and attractive as it is today with its wealth of blooms and floral display. The recent heavy rains have moistened the earth so that all vegetation is luxuriant and is at its best. This veritable garden of eden is luring many residents to is precincts.

Kenneth Rice has purchased the Coolie property on the highway as a business venture. It consists of two large lots. Many years ago Mrs. Leland Stanford maintained a kindergarten on the property contributing from her private funds the money for running the school. Many men and women prominent in busiess here attended the institution.

The Catholic Wellfare Society will hold a food sale in the old postoffice corner in the Murray block today. The ladies have a good supply of home-made cakes and pies—just the kind mother used to make.

Walter H. Linforth, the well-known attorney and his charming wife moved down from the city and are occupying their attractive home on the Middlefield road. Mr. Linforth is a leader of the bar of the bar of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Walter of Atherton are expected home soon after a month in southern California.

Free advisory SERVICE to customers

EVERY possible assistance is rendered customers at our local office and through the telephone exchanges.

Day and night someone is on duty in the Service Department to take care of all matters needing immediate attention.

Advice is given on the application of rates and on the laying out of heating installations.

A Home Service Representative will be sent on request to show how to get the best results when cooking with gas or electricity.

In large manufacturing plants, the service rendered by the P. G. and E. engineers in installing equipment and teaching operators to use it has made possible the use of gas for brazing, melting, cutting, welding, etc. The time of the Company's engineers is given without charge.

Our engineers furnish detailed layouts for modern electric equipment in factories and on farms.
